WHY YOU SHOULD COME!

You will experience the beautiful FSC campus, meet students and work with our faculty, and have the opportunity to ask questions about music degree programs, scholarships, and campus life.

WHAT YOU WILL EXPERIENCE.

Check-in in the music office at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, February 3. After checking in, you will tour the campus, meet with college admissions counselors, and enjoy a grill party with the FSC faculty and students. That evening you will attend a recital featuring FSC student musicians and participate in ensemble rehearsals. Later you will meet your student hosts for a fun evening of entertainment.

On Saturday you will attend classes in Music History, Conducting, and Music Theory. You may choose to receive a private lesson from a faculty member, and also audition for a music scholarship. The final event of the day is an honors recital featuring Talent Weekend participants.

STAY IN THE DORMS!

You may choose to stay overnight in a dorm room with an FSC student host, or stay at home and attend the weekend events on Friday and Saturday. All meals are provided. (Please contact the music office if you have a disability or special diet.)

WEEKEND TUITION. FREE!

This weekend is sponsored by the Florida Southern College Music Department at no cost to the participants.
