Orton-Gillingham Level 1 Teacher Training Workshop

June 14-18, 2010

The Orton-Gillingham approach is a highly effective method for teaching students who struggle with reading. It is a systematic, multisensory, and alphabetic approach to teaching reading and spelling.

This workshop provides Level 1 training for participants in the basic instruction of the Orton-Gillingham approach. Training includes the rationale for selecting the approach as well as knowledge and skill in designing and teaching lessons.

Our instructor will be Rosalie Davis, a Fellow of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators and Associate Head of The Schenck School in Atlanta.

Workshop will be held
Monday-Friday, 8:00am-3:30pm
