

INTERPERSONAL & ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION

One of the most critical skills for success in the workplace and society at large is strong communication skills.

The interpersonal and organizational communication career track will provide you with the in-depth knowledge necessary to flourish in a variety of careers. Interpersonal and organizational communication students graduate with advanced writing, research, and public speaking skills. Knowing how communication flows and is processed, whether between individuals, groups, or in a large organization, provides a professional advantage in any career.

TOP REASONS TO CHOOSE FSC FOR INTERPERSONAL & ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION:

- Work with our esteemed faculty who are members of professional organizations and draw from their extensive research in communication.
- Develop a distinct advantage through presentations at state and national conferences. Share your research with a wider audience as well as network with industry leading communication professionals.
- Connect with a national championship communication speech team, which is mentored by our highly regarded, award-winning faculty members.
- Complete your senior thesis; you can use it as part of your graduate or professional school admissions application.
- Work directly with your faculty members to find an internship that aligns with your career goals.
- Put your theories to practice in a real-world, hands-on environment through our campus television station, newspaper, and social media platforms.
- Build your skills and résumé through participation in The Southern (student paper), the Interlachen (yearbook), the forensic team, the Advertising Federation, the Florida Public Relations Association, Southern Sports Network, Go Healthy FSC, Moc Talk News Weekly, and Lambda Pi Eta (Honors).

POSSIBLE CAREERS FOR INTERPERSONAL & ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION

- Administrator
- Association Administrator
- Campaign Manager
- Community Action Director
- Development Officer
- Editorial Assistant
- Electronic Publication Specialist
- Events Planner
- Hospitality Manager
- Hotel Manager
- Market Research Analyst
- Market Research Specialist
- Media Manager
- Presenter
- Proofreader
- Public Information Officer
- Public Relations Assistant
- Reporter/Journalist
- Research Worker
- Salesperson
- Script Writer
- Technical Writer
- Training and Development Specialist

For more information about applying to FSC as a communication major, please go to