

The mission of the Justice Teaching Center for Civic Learning is to create a positive and consequential impact on the field of civic learning and engagement. The Center provides high impact, law-focused civic education partnerships, resources, and programs.

Programs

- ◆ Justice Teaching K-12 partnerships between teachers and over 4,000 judges and attorneys in local communities
- ◆ K-12 standards-based lessons and programs
- ◆ Civics competitions
- ◆ Constitutional education models and simulated congressional hearings
- ◆ Project Citizen public policy project-based learning
- ◆ Mock trial and moot court competitions
- ◆ United States Senate Youth Program
- ◆ Florida Law Honor Society
- ◆ Professional development opportunities
- ◆ Adult education model presentations and courses
- ◆ FSC course in Landmark Supreme Court cases

Professional Development

- ◆ Standards-based professional development opportunities for teachers
- ◆ Civic learning strategies and research-based models
- ◆ Civics programs for colleges, universities, and nonpartisan civics groups
- ◆ Adult civic education models
- ◆ Civic learning public policy problem-solving models for K-12 and postsecondary
- ◆ Training for attorneys and judges to support K-12 Justice Teaching partnerships

Contact: apitts@flsouthern.edu

Website: <https://www.flsouthern.edu/arts-centers/centers-institutes/justice-teaching-center/home.aspx>