

Judicial Bingo (High School and Postsecondary)

Answer as many questions on the sheet as you can individually. Then, at your table, discuss with others the topics which appear in each box. See if you can help each other complete the entire sheet. Each box contains a substantive question or inquiry. Make sure to write down the answer in each box and cite the source. Then move to the next box and continue until all boxes can be checked off. This bingo game can be implemented as a small group activity. To request an answer sheet, contact apitts@flsouthern.edu.
