

MUSIC EDUCATION

MUSIC TEACHERS ARE READY TO GUIDE STUDENTS OF ALL AGES TOWARD LIFE-LONG APPRECIATION AND PARTICIPATION IN MUSIC. THEY ALSO ENJOY HELPING ALL STUDENTS DEVELOP DISCIPLINE, LEADERSHIP SKILLS, AND CREATIVITY THROUGH MUSIC.

You'll acquire the skills to help your students achieve their full potential through the study of methodologies of general musicianship and performance techniques.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

By pursuing a Bachelor of Music Education, you'll learn concepts and methodologies in music theory, history, orchestrating, conducting, and music performance. Find yourself refining your performance technique through private instrumental or vocal study, while studying pedagogical practices that will allow you to meet the needs of a diverse group of learners.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION

Demonstrate your competency through field experiences, and by student teaching for a semester in a public school environment. There, you'll work under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and a faculty supervisor preparing you for teaching licensure prescribed by the Florida Department of Education.

SHARE YOUR PASSION

Known throughout Florida for its rich arts programs, our local public school system offers many opportunities to gain hands-on classroom experience, while sharing your love of music with students.

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER.

In addition to the experience you'll gain through your coursework and field studies, you'll have many opportunities to further develop your musicianship and teaching practices.

MAKE MUSIC — Do you play string, wind, or percussion instruments? Do you love to sing? Hone your performance skills by participating in one or more of our many musical ensembles.

CONNECT WITH OTHER MUSICIANS — Participate in the Music Educators National Conference. Join Delta Omicron or Phi Mu Alpha, our professional fraternities dedicated to music. Participate in SoCo Productions and the Media Industry Club and explore the music business.

GROW YOUR NETWORK — Through our student chapter of the National Association of Future Music Educators (NAFME), you'll attend conferences and workshops, and participate in professional development opportunities. You'll also become acquainted with other pre-service teachers as well as professionals in the field.

PLACEMENT RATE

Each year, our graduates find job opportunities at traditional schools as well as charter, magnet, and private institutions located locally, nationally and abroad because they are versed in the latest pedagogical methods and practices. You can be one of them.
